Derek Prince: Entering the Presence of God
Worshiping at the Throne

I. Revelations 4 is about the _____ of heaven.

A. The word throne is used ____ times in the first 11 verses

II. Revelations 4:8-10

A. There is one characteristic-_____

B. The pattern of worship in heaven: They _____ before the one who sits on the throne.

III. Revelation 5:2-11

Only one worthy to open the scroll

B. Verses 8-10 describe the entire heavenly realm engaging in worship.

1._____ fall down

2. Our prayers come before the presence of the _____

How?_____

a. In _____ full of incense.

b.What does incense represent? _____

3. This is the 1st circle of worship-the 4 living creatures and the 24 elders _____.

C. Verses 12-13

1. Every creature to the farthest bounds of the universe involved in one thing_____.

D. Verse 14: Then, they fall down and worship Him who lives forever and ever.

IV. The center of the universe is the _____, and it extends in ever widening circles to the utmost bounds of the _____.

Everyone and everything doing only one thing: _____.

Who is at the center? The _____.

Derek Prince Entering the Presence of God: Inevitability of Worship

I. Ultimately, man's choice is not whether he will worship, but _____ Exodus 20:1–5

First, God will not share _____ with anyone or anything
If we worship God, we worship him alone, only he has the right to receive worship.

C. Second, _____ is always an indication of worship

D. Exodus 20:5 "you shall not bow down to them". Bowing down and worship are the _____

E. Third, the evil consequences of misdirected worship extend to our _____

II. The grain offering:
A. Leviticus 2:1

B. The grain offering had to be ground into very small particles. This typifies our offering, _____ to God. He wants everything so he can deal with us without resistance/opposition to _____.

C. When we offer our lives to God, there are two figurative actions we must take; we must _____ on it, and _____ on it.

Oil is always a metaphor for the _____. We cannot offer anything to God unless the Holy Spirit enables us to offer it.

2. Frankincense is a kind of aromatic gum that is white in color and has no particular attractive qualities. But when it is burned, it sends forth a beautiful and distinctive _____ that typifies _____. In most instances in the Bible incense refers to worship.

D. When we offer ourselves to the Lord, we have to do it by the _____ and with _____.

1. Something different happens to the frankincense:

What do all types of false worship have in common? They lead to the same person, _____.
Satan desires worship because it sets forth his claim to _____ with God.
Isaiah 14:12-14 this caused Satan's fall in the first place.
the phrase "I will" is repeated five times. That is the _____ rebellion.

5. The last words," I will be like the most high" was the _____ of Satan.

6. Equality with God remains the ultimate goal, one way he can claim it is by receiving worship, as he identifies in a certain sense, as a God.
7. Revelations 13:1–2
8. There will be a brief period of time when Satan will come close _____.
   a. This is the way human history is headed in it's _____ against God.
   b. Satan is moving upon nations and political leaders with the objective of _____.
   c. Eventually, he will find a political leader whom he can so empower that this man will receive humanity's worship and through him, Satan will receive _____ as well.

D. Because of this, we need to be crystal clear on one Question: "Whom"_____?
E. Jesus provides us with the only correct answer to that question: Matthew 4:10 _____
F. The most important decision you can make and it will determine your eternal destiny is, "Are you _____ to say "I will worship the Lord" and "I will serve him only.."